

SMITH & RHULAND LIMITED

COMMERCIAL AND PLEASURE BOAT BUILDERS

CONTRACTING & REPAIRING

LUNENBURG, — NOVA SCOTIA

March 18, 1970.

Mr. Stanley Parsons,
34 Brookwell Dr.,
Apt. 412,
Downsview, Ontario.

Dear Sir:-

We list below the color scheme of the original "Bluenose", as requested in your letter of March 10.

- (1) Cabin Sides - White
- (2) Sills and Top of Cabin - Light Gray
- (3) Pin Rails - White with Varnished edges
- (4) Ratchet Supports - White, Varnished tops
- (5) Winch Supports - White, Varnished tops
- (6) Dorries - Buff or Midtan
- (7) Masts - These were oiled and appeared to be varnished
- (8) Booms - Same as masts with White Jaws
- (9) Decks - Oiled resembling varnish
- (10) Mast Hoops - Varnished
- (11) Stanchions and Inside Bulwarking - White
- (12) Waterways - Gray
- (13) Forecastle House - White with varnished corner Posts
- (14) Bowsprit - Oiled resembling varnish
- (15) Mast Head - White
- (16) Crosstrees - White
- (17) Top Masts - Oiled resembling varnish
- (18) Wheel Box - Top White, Sides varnished and Sills Gray
- (19) Rails - White Top, Varnished edges
- (20) Hatches - Gray with White hatch covers
- (21) Cabin Slider - Top white, Runners Varnished
- (22) Hull - Topsides - Black
Bottom - Red Copper
Waterline - 3" Wide Boot Top

SMITH & RHULAND LIMITED

COMMERCIAL AND PLEASURE BOAT BUILDERS

CONTRACTING & REPAIRING

LUNENBURG, — NOVA SCOTIA

--2--

We hope that we have not confused you too much in colors but this is the way they were painted in those days.

Wishing you all success in building your model.

Yours very truly,

Fred A. Rhuland.

FAR:sk